CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

PRE-PROFESSIONAL TECHNIQUES

Ballet, Contemporary, Repertory Class, Pointe, Pas de Deux, Men's/Women's Variations and Ensemble. These classes are designed to further develop the most advanced student's strength, artistry and technical proficiency.

SUPPLEMENTAL CLASSES

Pilates, Floor Barre, Conditioning and Cross Training

WORKSHOP STUDIES

This class will offer the highest level of challenge in both Modern and Jazz medium. Students will be encouraged to find not only their technical best, but also a high performance level in their focus, projection and musicality while gaining a solid understanding of specific techniques.

CLASSICAL REPERTOIRE

Repertoire, variations and Pas de Deux's from the great traditional ballets

TRAINEE POSITION

Trainees are in the Pre-Professional Division. This division is open to dancers ages 15-21 by audition only and offers intensive study in ballet, pointe, male and female variations, pas de deux, men's technique, modern, and jazz.

TRAINEES

Trainees engage in 30 hours per week of classes and rehearsals that comprise the Pre-Professional Division curriculum. Trainees rehearse and perform original choreographic works and repertoire ranging from classical to contemporary as part of Charlotte Ballet Repertory Ensemble. Trainees have opportunities to perform in Charlotte Ballet company productions. The Trainee is a tuition-based position for which Charlotte Ballet offers a limited number of scholarships.

PERFORMANCE OPPORTUNITIES

Trainee dancers are required to participate in the Repertory Ensemble, where they have the privilege of working with Charlotte Ballet and guest choreographers. Scheduled appearances for Repertory Ensemble include dance festivals, workshop performances, and an annual spring performance. The Repertory Ensemble also participates in the Academy's annual Benefit Performance at the Jean-Pierre Bonnefoux and Patricia McBride Center for Dance.

TUITION AND FEES

Prices are subject to change. Tuition, fees, and any other Academy purchases are non-refundable. Any forms, tuition, dues, fees, etc. that are turned in late will incur a late fee of $20. At contract receipt, dancer/parents will be contacted to charge tuitions/fees.
